The British Institute

Courses are held in Salt Lake City for one week, Monday through Friday. Accommodations and classroom sessions are at a downtown hotel; research and most one-on-one sessions are at the Family History Library. The British Institute offers excellent support and many features. See Web site for further details and a registration form.

Exceptional educational opportunity	Individual consultations with instructors
Expert instructors	Morning classes; afternoon research
Small class sizes	Assistance on-site in the Family History Center
Resources, methodology, skills	Helpful and friendly atmosphere
